

Patrick Frick

International Sales Director, PAN-Biotech GmbH

Cell Culture For Future

Tune in to this one-hour seminar to learn more about how PAN-Biotech approaches the idea of sustainable science as a business company. Patrick Frick will give us insights into the company's strategy to design sustainable processes, how they pursue their unique path towards "Recycle, Reduce, Replace" and how they encourage you to "Green your lab". Hear about PAN-biotech's philosophy and the motivation towards this goal as well as which obstacles they faced and which solutions they developed.

27 April 2021, 4 pm
